Lake Park, with its cooling water, inviting shade and pleasant breezes, which Columbians so much enjoy this warm weather, had an added charm Thursday evening in the presence of military officers, brass buttons and dancing. The hours seemed all too short to hold the pleasures offered, or to even in a measure satisfy tripping feet. The usual hour for dispersing would force itself on the participants in the ball, and at half-past eleven o'clock the gay crowd was transferred to the street cars en route to the city.

Dr. W. T. Bolling, of Paducah, Ky., a former pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, delivered an address at the unveiling of the Confederate monument at West Point on Thursday last. He is an able and brilliant speaker, and those fortunate enough to hear him on that occasion say that he sustained his past record. Dr. Bowlin will be in Columbus for the remainder of the encampment.

At the request of the Y. M. C. A. of the encampment, Miss Charlie Garner, who has done such valiant work in the W. C. T. U., will furnish an evening's entertainment for the coming week. Viewed from the standpoint of what Miss Garner has done, Columbus has a treat in store.

Among the absentees of Columbus, none report a more charming visit than Miss Mary McClure's to Mrs. Overby of Danville, Va. She is one of the number of happy guests being entertained by this charming hostess in her hospitable home, and will be absent several weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cushing of Del Rio, Texas, who have been the guests of Mrs. George Boyd, left on Thursday night for the Jamestown exposition. Later Mrs. Cushing will return to visit friends and relatives.

Gov. Vardaman, on his arrival in Columbus Friday afternoon, was met by an enthusiastic crowd of admirers, and escorted to the camp by Troop A, preceded by the general staff.

Mrs. W. W. Humphries and Mrs. Charlie Evans, who have been spending the summer at Mrs. Evans' country home, will be in the city for the next two weeks.

Miss Mattie Lou Brown and Mrs. Lucy Lowry leave this week for Flat Rock, North Carolina, where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

The friends of Miss Juliet Hamilton will be glad to know she is almost well again. Little Miss Hamilton has been suffering from tonsillitis.

Miss Ruffe Sanders, one of West Point's charming girls, who is enjoying the gaieties of the encampment, is the guest of Mrs. Ben Owen.

Mrs. Jas. K. Vardaman and Miss Vardaman are at the Stone Hotel this week. Miss Vardaman has as her guest Miss Wood of Canton.

Mrs. Ben Allen and her sister, Mrs. Patty, of Macon, arrived Friday afternoon, and are the guests of Mrs. H. D. Foote on the Highlands.

Mr. Lucius Lide of Memphis, Tennessee, is visiting his mother, Mrs. L. L. Lide, of this city.

Misses Amalie Sykes and Charline Scott of Rosedale will arrive Monday, to be the guests of Mrs. R. E. Johnston on Main street.

Misses Jessie and Elizabeth Kennewell are at home again after an extended trip to Washington, New York and Boston.

Mr. Tom Sykes of Aberdeen is visiting in the city.

Little Miss Frances Exum of West Point will visit her aunt, Miss Sarah Anderson, at Mrs. Sale's on North Seventh street.

Mrs. J. E. Thrower of Mayhew, Miss., has returned to her home after spending several days with Mrs. Sale.

The arrival of Miss Annita Terrell of West Point in a few days will swell Columbus' list of charming guests.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Driscoll of Del Rio, Texas, are visiting friends and relatives in the city.

Miss Ivy Hilzom of Jackson, Miss., is visiting Mrs. W. B. Harrington on South Third avenue.

Miss Carrie Estes of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Estes, of this city.

Misses Kizzie and Margie Hairston are to visit Mrs. Hugh Hairston the coming week.

Miss Mary Billups is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Willis Garth, at her country home.

Mrs. Hugh Hairston has as her guest this week Mrs. Will Cox of West Point.

Mrs. Geo. Boyd has as her charming guest Miss Anna Peebles of Jackson, Miss.

Col. and Mrs. Hays of Natchez will be guests at the Stone Hotel during the week.

Mr. W. H. Kier of Corinth is spending a few days with Mr. Frank Owen.

Mrs. Paxton of Greenwood is the guest of Mrs. F. S. Aldridge.

Miss Kittle Cox of Crawford is visiting Miss Mary Moore.

Mrs. W. R. McKinley is visiting friends in Selma, Ala.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St. in Waco, Texas, needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years, and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic coughs, la grippe, croup, whooping cough and prevents pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at L. E. Mayfield's, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Fall Fair.

The directors of the East Mississippi and West Alabama Fair Association are making extensive preparations for the fall fair, which will be held during the last week in October. A number of improvements will be made at the fair grounds, the most important being the remodeling and enlarging of the exhibit hall. The building will be enlarged and the floor space greatly increased, giving additional room for exhibits in both the horticultural and the ladies' departments.

There will as usual be a football game during the progress of the fair. The A. and M. College team will be one of the contestants. The opposing team has not yet been definitely decided upon, but it will probably be either Tuscaloosa or the University of Mississippi. The racing will be unusually good, and there will be numerous special features. Taken all in all, the prospects for a successful fair are very flattering.

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was fiercely attacked four years ago by piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of burns, sores, cuts and wounds. 25 cents at L. E. Mayfield's drug store.

Mrs. Chamblee Leases Smith House.

Mrs. A. F. Chamblee, who some time since purchased the residence of Mrs. Percy Hines on North Market street, has leased the Smith House, which is located next door and which will give her a number of additional rooms. Mrs. Chamblee's boarding house is very popular, and her rapidly increasing patronage has made it necessary to provide additional accommodations.

We regret to note the illness of Mr. A. W. Haynie, who has been quite sick for a week past, suffering from malarial fever.
